What is your favorite Christmas song? This is a difficult question for many because there are so many great songs. Christmas music has been playing over the radio for the last month. If you are like me, we have been singing with much glee. I love hearing Jingle Bells and Rudolph the Red Nose Reindeer and I even find myself adding extra phrases between the regular lyrics.

But for me, I do have a favorite Christmas song. It was recorded in 1977 and wasn't released until 1982 (before my time). The name is Peace on Earth/The Little Drummer Boy by David Bowie and Bing Crosby. I was exposed to this song in High School when I sang with one of my friends Malik. The two of us sang this song all over Walterboro for many years, spreading the peace the song offers. Even though this song is all of 2 minutes and 32 seconds, it still brings joy to my heart and sometimes even a tear to my eye.

I know the past few years have been tough getting into the Christmas Season. But this year I hope that you will. The Children will have their Christmas program on the 3rd. Two or More will gather for "The Chosen" Christmas movie on the 18th. Also on the 18th, we will have a special service with Mt. Zion UMC. This will be a Blue Christmas Service, a service of hope. We will gather on Christmas Eve to celebrate the birth of Christ. We will hear the stories of that baby who was born in the stable, and we will sing the songs of Angels singing and of Shepherds watching over their flocks. We will find ways to be with our families. But I ask you this season to find a place again in your heart for the joy of the Christ Child. Christmas isn't about "boxes and bags" or even about how many gifts you receive. It is about how we can serve that Child lying in the manger. I pray that all of you find Joy in the season ahead. Love you all, Justin

The table is set. The people of Israel welcome Jesus as king while his disciples anticipate his crowning. But instead of confronting Rome, he turns the tables on the Jewish religious festival. Their power threatened, the country's religious and political leaders will go to any length to ensure this Passover meal is Jesus' last.

Children Christmas Play

Feeling Blue this Christmas?

You are not alone. For many, the Christmas season brings not only joy, but also feelings of sadness, loss, or loneliness. If this Christmas season feels heavy for you, Rev. Joey Gambrell and Rev. Justin Ritter invite you to a Blue Christmas Service at Lawrence Chapel UMC 2101 Six Mile Hwy, Central, SC 29630 on Thursday, December 18th at 6:00pm.

Through scripture, prayer, music and remembrance, we will make space for both our sadness, loss, or loneliness and hope, trusting in the promise that

“The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.” John1:5.

It has been the tradition at LCUMC to collect a love offering for the church staff at Christmas time. Your generous gifts, designated for this purpose, will be distributed to Justin, Elizabeth, Amy, Deanna, Kris, Grayson and Suzi in recognition of and appreciation for the ministry and service they provide to Lawrence Chapel. Thank you! Jeff Hall.
